

Question for practice:

1. Write a program for calculating square of an integer number,say 5, using function.
2. Write a program to print the contents of an integer array using function.
3. Write a program to perform matrix addition in two dimension array.
4. Write a program to perform matrix multiplication in two dimension array.
5. Write a program to display prime numbers between intervals by making function